

Enjoy a Spring Workshop on

Cross-Step Waltz

a very accessible vernacular vintage waltz with a swooping step, graceful yet playful feel and lots of variations

Sunday, April 11, 2010

Fermilab's Kuhn Village Barn, Batavia

The Barn is near the East (Warrenville, Rt. 59) entrance to Fermilab just north of Batavia Road on Sauk Blvd.

There is a contra dance there that evening at 6 p.m.

12 p.m. - 2 p.m. Beginning

2 p.m. - 4 p.m. Intermediate

$5 per session / $8 whole afternoon

students $3 per session / $5 whole afternoon

No Waltz Experience
Needed

No Need to Come
With a Partner

Taught by Jeanette and Mike Watts

Jeanette and Mike Watts have been studying and performing Vintage Dance for more than 10 years.. They is proficient at ballroom dances from 1790 to 1960. Beginning with weekly classes with the Flying Cloud Academy of Vintage Dance and annual weeklong workshops with the Commonwealth Vintage Dancers of Boston, they studied with some of the world's best teachers at Stanford University, New Orleans Dance Week, Prague in the Czech Republic, and Provence, France. She is currently a performer with the Forget-Me-Not Historical Dance Company, and are the founders of the Terpsichorean Delights Dance Assembly of Dayton, Ohio. Jeanette has her own 10 years of additional dance experience in teaching and performing belly dance, international folk dance, and French Cancan.

For More Information, call 630-584-0825, email folkdance@fnal.gov or go to

<http://www.fnal.gov/orgs/folkdance/>

Sponsored by Fermilab International Folk Dancing, Fermilab English Country Dancing, and Evanston English Country Dancing.. Endorsed by the Folk Dance Council of Chicago